

GAYLE'S Thanksgiving

To Our Wonderful Customers,

We're so grateful for all of the support we've received in these past few months.

We know this holiday season will be different and challenging for all of us. We've given much thought about how to keep you and our staff safe. In order to do that we must limit our selection and the number of orders we can take.

Our Complete Thanksgiving Dinner is our most popular item. This year the Deli a la carte items will not be available to order. We know this may disappoint many of you and we'll be evaluating this as we go along. If we can, we may open up orders for the a la carte Deli items in early November.

This is uncharted territory for everyone and again, safety is our top priority. Thanks for understanding.

Happy Thanksgiving from all of us at Gayle's.
